Marjorie Kratsas focuses her practice on personal injury and medical malpractice defense. She is dedicated to advocating for her clients while maneuvering complex and catastrophic civil defense litigation matters. Marjie personally actively engages in all stages of litigation and is trial experienced.

Prior to joining Messner Reeves, Marjie was a senior associate with a national defense firm focusing her practice on medical malpractice and general litigation. While attending law school, Marjie was an active member of the Public Interest Law Foundation. During school breaks, she gained valuable experience interning for both the Nevada Attorney General's Office and the Clark County Nevada Public Defender. Before her legal career, Marjie was a paramedic in Las Vegas and an emergency medical instructor for the College of Southern Nevada. Her first-hand experience as a medical provider has allowed for valuable insight while providing legal defenses to her clients.

In her spare time, Marjie enjoys spending time with her family and cheering on the Las Vegas Golden Knights.
